CUDGEL AND OMAR KHAYYAM

Special $10,000 Race to Bring the Two Stars Together.

Blue Laddie Meets Defeat—Jack Hare Jr. Qualifies for Valuable Preakness Stakes.

Baltimore, Md., May 9.—There was so much talk after the running of the Pimlico Spring Handicap yesterday, about the bad luck that some of those that finished back of Cudgel suffered, that the Maryland Jockey Club decided that it would be the sporting thing to do to offer another big race for the first four horses to run for, and the announcement was made during the afternoon, that the club would donate $10,000 for a race between Cudgel, Omar Khayyam, Bondage and Crank, to be run on either Monday or Tuesday next. The weights and distance to be the same as the Pimlico Spring Handicap.

The Spring Juvenile Stakes, the principal two-year-old feature of the Maryland Jockey Club, was the main attraction at Pimlico today. It resulted in a big surprise, the heavily backed Whitney representative, Blue Laddie, suffering defeat at the hands of Madam Byng and Bon Jour. Blue Laddie had all the bad luck of the race, was off slowly and cut off when Robinson attempted to bring him through on the inside on the stretch turn, but finished fastest of all and gaining on the leaders with every stride. Madam Byng led all the way, with Bon Jour in close pursuit, the two finishing a head and a nose in front of Blue Laddie.

Jack Hare Jr. qualified handsomely today as a formidable contender for the rich Preakness Stakes to be run next Wednesday, by an impressive victory in the Woodbury Handicap at one mile. This was practically a preliminary for the big three-year-old race, as all the starters today are candidates for the Preakness. Jack Hare Jr. was top weight and outran the others from start to finish, winning eased up. H. P. Whitney's Flags, the highly touted Whisk Broom II. colt, made an impressive racing debut in this race, running a fast and game race to finish a good second. George Starr suffered his first defeat of the year, but he had quite a rough race.

It was a tight fit in the opener, Little Maudie driving to the limit to withstand the fast closing rush of Sweeplet. Miss Kruter brought woe to a host of admirers in the second, when she quit badly after setting the pace to the stretch turn and was eased up after she was beaten. The winner turned up in Julia L. after a stout tussle with Millrace and High Low.

J. E. Widener's colors were carried to victory in the Potomac Steeplechase, his Louvois fencing in faultless style and winning quite easily from a fair band of jumpers.

DERBY STARS FOR PREAKNESS.

William P. Riggs, secretary of the Maryland Jockey Club, received word this morning to reserve stalls for several of the Preakness eligibles, which are at Churchill Downs to fulfill their Kentucky Derby engagement. Walter C. Jennings, trainer for A. K. Macomber and Henry McDaniel, trainer for Willis Sharpe Kilmer, have ordered two express cars to be ready to leave Louisville Sunday morning, which will land them in Baltimore Monday about noon. Jennings is bringing on the Macombe crack War Cloud and McDaniels' Sun Briar and Nell Sweep. Sewell Combs, the property of Gallaher Bros., will come along in the same shipment.

Frank J. Bryan, the presiding steward at Pimlico, will leave for Toronto to officiate at Woodbine during the running of the King's Plate. This famous old Canadian race will be run in connection with the three days' horse show, which will be given at Woodbine for the benefit of the Red Cross. The race, which will probably be the only one run in Canada this year, will be featured on May 24.

George Starr ran in the colors of Wilfrid Viau in the Woodbury Handicap this afternoon. Mr. Viau purchased the colt this morning of S. A. MacNaughton for a price said to be $15,000.

Papp, winner of last year's Futurity, will be an absentee from the Preakness at Pimlico. The colt developed a cough a few days back, which forced trainer Max Hirsch to let up on his preparation for the time being.

Wm. H. Travers has been ordered to report to the Pelham Bay Naval Station, New York, for duty.

A. J. Goldsborough, who trains the horses that race in the colors of Andrew Miller, came over from New York to saddle Recount, which made his initial appearance in the fifth race at Pimlico this afternoon.

Wm. Walker lodged a claim for Air Man after the latter was beaten in the seventh race yesterday and placed an even $2,200 in his envelope. The amount should have been $2,200.16, consequently the claim was not valid and the Viau establishment retained their racer.

Dr. H. J. McCarthy, the well-known veterinarian, has been notified by Governor Harrington of his appointment as a member of the state medical board.

Wash Norvell has been engaged to act as racing secretary at the half mile meetings to be given at the Gentlemen's Driving Park, Prospect Park and Marlboro, which will be given immediately following the close of the Pimlico meeting.

The Widener racers Lanius and Trompe La Morte have been shipped over from Belmont to fulfill their stake engagements at Pimlico.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

A London dispatch of yesterday says: The British government, Bonar Law told the House of Commons today, has not yet arrived at a decision with regard to the continuance of racing.

August Belmont's Stromboli, which will not be able to race this year owing to a recurrence of leg trouble, while never a champion, was always noted for his consistency and truly deserved his cognomen—Old Honesty.

Jack Lysaght, a well-known turfman, died Tuesday night at the Sisters' Hospital in Buffalo, N. Y., after a brief illness. He was sixty years old at the time of death, and for thirty years was a resident of Buffalo. In addition to his turf activities, he was at one time matchmaker for the Olympic Athletic Club of Buffalo and was frequently seen in the ring as referee.

INTERESTING INCIDENTS RECALLED IN BRIEF SKETCH OF THE FORTY-THREE WINNERS OF KENTUCKY DERBY

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—We who love the thoroughbred horse and the sport he provides know that Aristides won the first Kentucky Derby in 1875 and that Omar Khayyam won the forty-third running of that coveted race last year, but how many of us remember the thrilling incidents of the races in between or even the names of the other forty winners?

"Today will ever be historic in the turf annals of Kentucky as the first 'Derby Day,'" prophetically wrote the late B. G. Bruce as the opening expression of a concise account of the inauguration of the sport at Churchill Downs on Monday, May 17, 1875. "That portion of the grandstand devoted to the ladies was one grand boquet of beauty, refinement and intelligence. The ladies in the various costumes looked like so many parti-colored butterflies balancing themselves on their wings in the slanting rays of the bright sun," he told us before he entered his description of how H. P. McGrath's Aristides, afterward famous as "the little red hoss," won "the best race at the weights ever run by three-year-olds in this country." Aristides stood only 15.3 hands. He was a son of Leamington, one of the greatest horses ever brought to this country from England, whither he sent back a son, Iroquois, to win that classic of classics, the Derby at Epsom Downs. Aristides was named for Leamington's owner. Aristides Welch of Philadelphia. Aristides, coupled with a stablemate, Chesapeake, which finished fourth, was favorite. Ridden by Oliver Lewis, Aristides went to the front at the end of the first half mile and from there to the finish of the race was never in doubt. He won by two lengths from Volcano, with Verdigris third, the time for the mile and a half being 2:37¾. There were fifteen starters and they were sent away without delay by Col. W. H. Johnson, while Col. M. Lewis Clark, president of the club, which had been organized by him after nine years of turf decadence in the Falls City, as the presiding official of the stand.

VAGRANT SECOND WINNER OF DERBY.

A Lexington horse, Vagrant, also won the second running of the Kentucky Derby. He was a son of Virgil, son of Vandal, sire of Volcano, and was owned by Capt. T. J. Nichols and ridden by Bobby Swim. Standing nearly sixteen hands, he was a dark bay gelding that was so unattractive as a yearling that he was sold for $250. However, he had a graceful way of running and was what in those days was termed a daisy cutter. Favorite at evens, Vagrant "galloped along at his ease in his big stride" and never left the result in doubt, winning by a length, with Creedmoor second and Harry Hill third, eleven starting, the drum having been tapped by Col. Robert Johnson.

Daniel Swigert's Baden-Baden, a big chestnut, with nothing particularly striking about him, won the third Derby in an exciting finish with H. P. McGrath's Leonard, the margin being a length, while a head only separated Leonard and King William. The winner, ridden by William Walker, was sold for $400 against $430 for the field. He, like Aristides and Vagrant, was trained at Lexington. Baden-Baden was a son of Australian—Lavender, a daughter of Wagner. There were eleven starters.

Day Star, winner of the fourth Derby, was 15.25, with an extraordinary short, stout back and well coupled. He was bred at Ashland by John M. Clay, who sold him to T. J. Nichols as a yearling for $825, and it was in his colors that he scored the second triumph in the race for that well-known citizen of Bourbon County. He was a son of Star Davis and was ridden by Carter. Day Star sold in the field for $110 against $305 for the favorite Himyar, from which he won easily by two lengths. Himyar was miserably ridden by Robinson.

Lord Murphy, winner of the fifth Derby, was bred in Tennessee, being a son of Pat Malloy, and was owned by George W. Darden and G. H. Rice, of Nashville. He was an overwhelming favorite and, ridden by Shauer, he won by a length and a half from Falsetto, after an exciting race.

The sixth Derby was won by Fonso, son of King Alfonso, bred at Woodburn, owned by J. S. Shawhan, of Bourbon County, trained at Lexington, ridden by Lewis and third choice in the betting. Fonso "cut out the work at a good pace," and "won a splendid race, a little over a length," in front of Kimball, the favorite, with Quito, the second choice, last of five and carrying the colors of Dwyer Brothers. Colonel Milton Young's Bancroft was third and Boulevard was fourth.

HINDOO WINS FOR DWYER BROTHERS.

The colors of Dwyer Brothers were carried to victory in the Derby of 1881 by that sturdy progenitor of the blood of his line, Hindoo. An odds-on favorite and ridden by Jimmy McLaughlin, the son of Virgin moved up from second position as they entered the stretch and won easily by four lengths, Lelex second and Alfambra third, McGrath's Sligo, son of Tom Bowling, being last of the other three. Dwyer Brothers had paid Daniel Swigert $15,000 for Hindoo as a two-year-old.

Daniel Swigert likewise was the breeder of Apollo, son of Ashstead or Lever, which won the Derby of 1882 in the colors of Morris & Patton, after it seemed in the stretch that the favorite, Runnymede, ridden by McLaughlin for Dwyer Brothers, had the race at his mercy. Runnymede quit and Apollo, piloted by Hurd, "coming with a wet sail after a driving race, won by a length."

Ascender, carrying the colors of Col. Bob Pate, the man who made a fruitless attempt to put the City of Mexico on the racing map, was favorite for the Derby of 1883, which fell to the handsome Leonatus, running in the colors of Chinn & Morgan, the Chinn being Colonel Jack, father of Phil T., and author of the law creating the Kentucky State Racing Commission. Leonatus was second choice and won in an easy gallop by three lengths, with Drake Carter second and Lord Raglan third. W. Donohue rode the winner.

Buchanan won the Derby of 1884 under the pilotage of that wizard of the saddle, Isaac Murphy. Buchanan was a magnificent looking son of Buckden and was foaled the joint property of Capt. W. Cottrill, of Mobile, and J. W. Guest, of Danville, Ky., who sold his half to his partner. Captain Cottrill later sold a half interest to Capt. S. S. Brown, of Pittsburg, and he ran as their property, winning easily by a length and a half from Loftin, with Audrain third, and the favorite, Bob Miles, fourth.

However much of a disappointment had been Bob Miles to Capt. Jim Williams the previous year Joe Cotton made amends by winning the Derby of 1885, for which he was favorite, and was ridden by Henderson. Morris & Patton, who were the owners of Drake Carter in 1883, were again second with Bersan and Col. Milton Young for the second time got third money, his colors having been carried by Ten Booker. It was a beautiful day and the largest crowd ever seen on a race course in Kentucky, with the exception that which had witnessed the match between Ten Broeck and Mollie McCarthy, was present.

It was the consensus of opinion that the field of ten that ran for the Derby in 1886 was "the best since Aristides' year." Ben Ali, son of Virgil, the third by that sire to mark a success in this prize, was the favorite, carried the colors of James B. Haggin, was ridden by P. Duffy and won by three parts of a length after a driving finish with Blue Wing. The time, 2:36½, was a new record for the race, the previous best having been Lord Murphy's 2:37. Free Knight was third.

Montrose, at odds of 10 to 1, ridden by Isaac Lewis, wearing the colors of Col. Alex Labold and his brother, won the Derby of 1887 by a length and a half from Jim Gore, which pulled up lame, a length better than Jacobin, the favorite, Banburg fourth.

Derby Day in 1888, the day that starter J. F. Caldwell made the mistake and sent the horses away for the first race at the half mile post in the chute instead of the five-eighths post, causing the race to be run over, was cold and raw and the track was deep in dust and the Melbourne Stable's pair, Alexandria and Galifet, were favored in the betting. Macbeth II., at odds of 10 to 1, carrying the colors of the Chicago Stable (Hankins & Johnson), and ridden by Covington, won handily, Galifet second and W. O. Scully's White third.

The next year Derby Day was insufferably hot and the "dust was so thick gathered that you could cut it with a knife," yet the largest crowd gathered that had ever been present to see the Derby. There was free entrance to the infield. It was, notwithstanding the day and tracks, great racing, and the field that went to the post in the Derby put up a brilliant contest, Noah Armstrong's Spokane, at 10 to 1 and ridden by Tom Kiley, winning by a short head from Proctor Knott, the 1 to 3 favorite, which lost the race when he swerved with Pike Barnes at the head of the stretch. For the third time Col. Milton Young's colors were third, once again finishing a head in front of Hindoocraft. Proctor Knott ran as the property of Scoggin & Bryant. The time was 2:34½ and that stands today as the record for the race at one mile and a half distance.

Riley, at 4 to 1, ridden by Isaac Murphy in Ed Corrigan's colors, won the Derby in 1890 from Bill Letcher and Robespierre, the favorite, the track being muddy.

Isaac Murphy rode his third winner of the race when he scored with the 2 to 5 favorite Kingman after a hard ride over a track deep in mud, doing the mile and a half in 2:52¼, the Derby's slowest time, yet before the most immense crowd ever at the course. Kingman raced in the colors of the Jacobin Stable, of which Kinzea Stone, of Georgetown, was the principal owner.

DUEL OF AZRA AND HURON IN 1892.

The race of 1892 produced the duel between George J. Long's Azra, ridden by Lonnie Clayton, and Ed Corrigan's Huron, guided by Tom Britton, which so frequently has been recounted as one of the most stirring contests of the last quarter of a century. Huron, coupled with Phil Dwyer, the only other starter, was odds-on, but Azra beat him by six inches.

The next year Lookout, trained by Will McDaniel and ridden by Kunze, won in a canter for Cushing & Orth, while his stable companion, Boundless, was beaten a head for second place by George J. Long's Plutus. The Cushing & Orth pair were favorites.

Chant, son of Falsetto, who had not been able to win the Derby in Lord Murphy's year, carried the colors of H. Eugene Leigh and George Rose to victory in 1894. Chant was ridden by Goodale and was a strong favorite. He led all the way and won without great effort, Pearl Song, second and Siguard third.

Halma, Byron McClelland's black son of Hanover, ridden by "Soup" Perkins, and favorite at 2 to 5, won easily in 1895 from Basso, Laureate and Curator.

The next year, the year in which William Jennings Bryan had the sagers all stirred up over the question of free silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, Ben Brush won the Derby by his whiskers from Ben Eder and it was heralded as the greatest race for the event since Spokane beat Proctor Knott. Simms rode the winner for Phil Dwyer and Tabor was on Ben Eder for "Umbrella Bill" McGuigan. It was the opinion of many that had the riders been reversed the son of Bramble, not as fit as Ben Eder, might not have won. Ben Brush was favorite at 1 to 2.

The succeeding year saw another duel for the Derby when J. C. Cahn's Tyhoon II. (Garner) defeated Headley & Norton's Ornament (A. Clayton), the favorite, by a neck. The winner was a son of Top Gallant.

The following year the prize again went to the east when Manuel, ridden by Fred Taral, favorite at 11 to 20, won for A. H. & D. H. Morris. Manuel was a son of Bob Miles. The second horse in this race was Corsini, which Ed Corrigan had shipped all the way from California, but T. Burns was not skillful enough to get closer than two lengths to the winner at the end.

LIEUT. GIBSON'S RECORD BREAKING DERBY.

Lieutenant Gibson, son of G. W. Johnson, owned by Charles Head Smith, trained by Charles H. Hughes, ridden by jockey Boland and favorite in the betting, had no difficulty in showing his heels to Florizar and Thrive and those behind them in the Derby of 1900. He ran the mile and a quarter in 2:06¼, which stood for ten years after that as the record for the race at that distance, the reduction from one mile and a half having been made in Ben Brush's year. Ben Brush's 2:07¾ was the fastest previous record.

His Eminence, another son of Falsetto, owned by F. B. Van Meter and ridden by Jim Winkfield, the colored jockey, who afterward distinguished himself in Russia, won the Derby of 1901 quite easily from Will Hayes' Sannazarro, piloted by Winnie O'Connor. John W. Schorr's Alard Scheck, odds-on favorite, was last of five and Tennessee was sick at heart.

Thomas Clay McDowell's Allan-a-Dale, son of Halma, bred at Ashland, ridden by J. Winkfield, won the 1902 Derby, while his stable companion, The Rival, ridden by Nash Turner, was third, Thomas W. Moore's Inventor, piloted by R. Williams, splitting them. Last of the four was the boasted Tennessean Abe Frank. It was a thrilling race and a close finish.

McDowell the following year put Dick Crowhurst on Bourbon and Helgerson on Woodlake and made another essay for the prize, but a couple of Chicagoans beat him to it, Judge Himes, ridden by H. Booker, at odds as high as 15 to 1, winning under the colors of Charles R. Ellison after a drive with the favorite, M. H. Tichenor & Co.'s Early, ridden by J. Winkfield. The winner was by Esher.

Elwood, a son of Free Knight, mounted by jockey Prior, running in the name of Mrs. Lasca Durnell, wife of "Boots" Durnell, who at the outbreak of the present war was in Roumania, an out-

LEXINGTON MEETING ENDS

Heavy Rain Makes the Track Muddy for the Last Day.

Lexington, Ky., May 9.—W. F. Polson's Billy Kelly won his third successive victory when he triumphed in the Idle Hour Stakes, for two-year-olds, worth $1,731 net, in hollow style from Colonel Livingston and Ginger, with Mack Garner, the only other starter, following. Billy Kelly was taken into the lead at once and increased his advantage with every stride and won in a canter.

Today's was the eighth running of the Idle Hour Stakes, the condensed history of which is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1910	Shooting Spray	103	A. Tho'as.	$ 626.50	1:15
1911	Kaiser	107	C. Ganz	549	1:16
1913	Little Nephew	115	J. Loftus	1,109	:53⅘
1914	Climber	115	J. Kederis	1,511	:57⅖
1915	Cosmic	118	T. McTag't	1,140	:55⅖
1916	Berlin	118	F. Murphy	1,161	:56⅖
1917	Escoba	118	D. Conn'lly	1,483	:56⅕
1918	Billy Kelly	115	R. Simps'n	1,731	:55

Distance 3-4 mile in 1910 and 1911. Not run in 1912.

The getaway card provided this afternoon was marred considerable because of the terrific downpour of this morning, which caused the track to become deep with mud and gave an advantage to the sturdier type racers. William Woodard's Opportunity scored easily in the mile handicap and his victory was mainly due to his facility in the going which prevailed. His closest pursuer at the end was Diamond. Like Billy Kelly, he ruled an outstanding favorite.

After being entered in anticipation of a muddy track and several times withdrawn, Sosius at last found a course to his liking and won the opening purse. His victory, however, was of the fluky order, for with good riding, Langhorne and Golden List should have both landed in front of him.

H. H. Hewitt's colors were carried to victory for the first time at the meeting, when his two-year-old Sam Reh won from By Heck and Madras in the second race.

J. C. Milam sold Everest this morning to John E. Madden, who will send him to New York, with others he will place in charge of John Miller. The horses will be shipped east as soon as cars can be secured for their transportation.

The meeting just terminated was, from a financial point, the record one in the history of racing in these parts. The banner day came when the Camden Handicap had it decision, for on that occasion the largest crowd that has ever been at the track, was on hand and the volume of betting also set a new record. There has been, on the whole, a scarcity of good racing material carrying silks during the fifteen days of the sport, but a partial explanation for this can be found in the fact that bad weather and track conditions ruled in the early days, causing owners to keep their better grade racers in their respective stables.

SPECIAL TRAINS TO LOUISVILLE.

Special trains will convey most of those that have not already shipped to Louisville tomorrow. It is likely that twenty or more cars will comprise each special movement. The advance brigade of turfmen and followers will depart for Louisville tonight on the Elrod special.

Blind Baggage is said to have come out of his race yesterday in a bad way and will probably not be seen under colors again for some time.

Emil Herz today concluded arrangements with R. L. Baker for the use of Kingston Farm, for the accomodation of Short Grass and the fourteen mares owned by Herz and his associates. The horses are at present at E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour Farm and will be moved from there about July 1.

Gallaher Bros.' horses were transferred to Louisville this morning. Sewell Combs was in the consignment. It was the first time in years that the stable failed to win a race at this meeting.

A. L. Kirby's Violet Bonnie, which is being reserved for the Kentucky Oaks, to be run at Churchill Downs, will be shipped with the others to Churchill Downs tomorrow.

W. F. Polson's two-year-old carried off the lion's share of races offered for the youngsters. His Billy Kelly was a three times winner in as many starts during the meeting as must be regarded as the best of the two-year-olds shown here. His victory in the Idle Hour Stakes this afternoon was a hollow one.

Jockey Goose is reported progressing favorably and the attending doctors have hopes that he will be able to resume his saddle work within a month. The report that he intends to stop riding is without foundation, according to Grover Baker.

The two-year-olds that have contested can be put down as an ordinary collection. They have not shown enough speed to warrant ranking any one with much superiority.

Billy Kelly and the others in the Polson string will be shipped to Louisville tomorrow.

There will be a big delegation of Lexingtonians to go to Louisville to witness the Derby next Saturday.

AIRPLANE STATION BE READY MAY 15

New York, May 9.—The date for completion of work on the airplane postal station at the Belmont Park race track, has been fixed for May 15. The grading for the hangars has been completed and the frames for two of them are up. The hangars are to be of steel and of a type similar to those sent abroad. The landing places will be located in front of the hangar sites, except in cases of emergency, when the airplanes will land on the infield of the race track. The station will be an added attraction for racegoers, who can witness its operation from any part of the grounds. There will be two mail deliveries daily, one at 11 a. m., and one at 3 p. m.

BROTHER TO HOURLESS IS FOALED

New York, May 9.—Major August Belmont has just received word from his breeding establishment at Haras de Villers, France, that Hour Glass II. foaled a colt by Negofol on April 13. The foal is a brother to Hourless and the colt will in all probability be shipped to this country next year.

The James Butler horses will be moved from Empire City track to Jamaica tomorrow or Saturday.

HISTORY OF THE KENTUCKY DERBY

sider in the betting, won the 1904 Derby, Ed Tierney second and Brancas third. It was a poor field.

Only three started over the muddy track the following year, when Capt. S. S. Brown's Agile, by Sir Dixon, ridden by J. Martin, won at 1 to 3 easily from W. S. Williams & Co.'s Ram's Horn and T. P. Hayes' Layson.

Charles R. Ellison made another try for the Derby in 1906 and succeeded in getting second and third money with his pair, Lady of Navarre and James Reddick, the winner being the favorite, Sir Huon, bred and owned by George J. Long, saddled by Pete Coyne and ridden by Roscoe Troxler. He was the third son of Falsetto to triumph in the race, though he was a tired horse at the end of his journey.

J. Hal Woodford's Pink Star, son of Pink Coat, winner of the American Derby, trained by W. H. Fizer, and ridden by Andrew Minder, at odds of 15 to 1, won in 1907 from Zal and Ovelando.

In 1908, the year of the institution of the parimutuel system for a second era in Kentucky, the track was muddy and C. E. Hamilton's Stone Street, paying $123.60, won easily, with Sir Cleges, the favorite, Dunvegan, Synchronized and Banridge, heads apart. It was a bad band.

Next year Wintergreen (V. Powers) won for Rome Respess and he was bred in Ohio, being a son of Dick Welles, and the only horse foaled in the Buckeye State to win the race. Then came in succession the winners Donau, son of Woolsthorpe, owned by William Gerst of Nashville; Meridian, by Broomstick, carrying the colors of R. F. Carman of New York at that time, now of Maryland; Worth, owned by H. C. Hallenbeck of New York, and sired by Knight of the Thistle; Donerail, sired by McGee, owned by T. P. Hayes of Lexington; Old Rosebud, son of Uncle, owned by H. C. Applegate & Co., of Louisville; Regret, the only filly ever to win it, daughter of Broomstick, owned by Harry Payne Whitney of New York; George Smith, son of Out of Reach, owned by John Sanford of Amsterdam, N. Y., and last year Omar Khayyam, the first foreign-bred to ever win the event. Omar Khayyam carried the colors of Billings & Johnson. Shortly afterwards the colt was sold to W. Viau, the Montreal turfman. Jockey Herbert rode Donau, George Archibald piloted Meridian, Carroll Shilling, Worth; Roscoe Goose, Donerail; John McCabe, Old Rosebud; Joe Notter, Regret, J. Loftus, George Smith and C. Borel, Omar Khayyam.

Each year the crowds at the Downs on Derby day have increased and each year the race has been most eagerly sought after by owners in all parts of the land, but in no year in its history has the race seemed so open as now, when a number of its eligibles are foreign-bred and the contest has an international aspect such as Colonel Clark dreamed of forty odds years ago.

PROSPECTIVE FIELD FOR THE DERBY

Probabilities Are That Ten High-Class Three-Year-Olds Will Start in Big Race Saturday.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—From present indications, a field of ten crack three-year-olds will face the barrier next Saturday in the forty-fourth running of the Kentucky Derby. This will be a good size for a race of such importance. A field that can be comfortably handled permits of truer racing and invites less chance for accident than one that is too large and unwieldy. The best horse has a better chance to win on his merits and the chapter of accidents is less likely to provide a sensational turnup which, though it may rejoice the heart of the backer of long shots, spoils a race like the Derby from the point of view of the sportsman. It is the supreme test of early in the year and it is well that it be run under conditions which admit of its being a true test. Following is the probable Derby lineup:

Horse.	Wt.	Jockey.
War Cloud	117	J. Loftus
Sun Briar	117	W. Knapp
Escoba	117	J. Notter
Sewell Combs	117	L. Gentry
Lucky B.	117	J. McCabe
American Eagle	117	E. Sande
Viva America	112	W. Warrington
Jas. T. Clark	117	J. Morys
Aurum	117	D. Connelly
W. P. Dabny	117	R. Simpson

Thomas McDowell's American Eagle, which heretofore had not been regarded as a starter, will be among the contestants, according to his owner, who came to this decision after the good race won by the colt at Lexington Tuesday. Both James Foster and Duke of Savoy, whose owners intended starting them, had to be dropped from the list after the accident in which both figured in the Derby Trial.

All of the prospective starters are now in this city awaiting the bugle call in the big race. Most of them were given their final trials yesterday morning and each trainer announced himself as being perfectly satisfied with the condition of his charge. The best trial shown was that credited to Jas. T. Clark, which ran one mile and a quarter in 2:09⅘. This colt is in magnificent form and his trainer is optimistic regarding his chances in the race.

MILITARY PROGRAM FOR DERBY DAY

General Hale and Staff from Camp Zachary Taylor to Be Guests of Churchill Downs Management.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—Major General Harry Hale, commanding officer at Camp Zachary Taylor, held a conference yesterday morning at Churchill Downs with General Manager Matt J. Winn, regarding the military arrangements for the meeting. It was announced after, that General Hale with his staff will be the guests of the club Derby day, also a detachment of troops and a regimental band from the camp. Prior to the first race the troops will assist in the unfurling of an immense American flag in center field. Governor O. A. Stanley will also be present and will make a patriotic address.

After Derby day each Wednesday and Saturday of the meeting will be set aside as military days, when approximately ten thousand troops from Camp Taylor will be the guests of the club. On each of these days the soldiers will march from their camp headed by a regimental band, to the Downs, where the center field will be the scene of a series of drills. On each of these days special races, in keeping with the occasion, will be programed.

Among the earlier arrivals for Derby day are J. H. Rosseter and J. B. Coleman, who came all the way from San Francisco to view the Derby. Mr. Rosseter is a new recruit to racing and this is his first visit to Churchill Downs. He was amazed to find such a beautiful course and warmly congratulated Col. Winn on the splendid appearance of the place. Mr. Coleman, who accompanied Mr. Rosseter, is a native of Louisville, but has been away from this city for fifteen years. Other arrivals of prominent racing folks include John A. Drake and Col. Andrew Vennie, who came from New York.

The stable of A. K. Macomber, in charge of Thomas Murphy, returned to Churchill Downs yesterday morning from Lexington. The horses arrived in good condition.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer and trainer Henry McDaniel went to Lexington yesterday morning and will return some time today.

C. T. Worthington's good filly Viva America has reached the Downs from Lexington and appears to be in good condition. Owner Worthington says she will surely start in the Derby.

War Cloud was worked a half mile yesterday morning in 50⅘ and later in the afternoon was given another stiff work-out at one mile.

APPROVE RUNNING OF KING'S PLATE

Toronto, Ont., May 9.—The decision of the Ontario Jockey Club to run the King's Plate this year and preserve the record of this famous race as the oldest fixture run continuously in this country, has met with approval here and abroad. King George V. has signified his approval by the usual royal donation of fifty guineas.

This royal donation was originally made in 1859 by Queen Victoria, upon the petition of the Toronto Turf Club, through Sir Edmund Head, the then governor-general. The headquarters of the club were at W. C. Keele's farm at Carleton, and the secretary-treasurer was Col. R. L. Denison. The prayer of the petitioners was for a Queen's Plate of 50 pounds, which was granted "to be run for at Toronto or such other place in Upper Canada as her Majesty might appoint."

For four years, 1860-1863, the race was run at Carleton and subsequently, under political pressure at Guelph, London, Hamilton, St. Catherines, Whitby, Kingston, Ottawa, Barrie, Woodstock, Prescott and Picton. In 1883 her Majesty Queen Victoria, at the instance of the present Duke of Argyll, gave her sanction to an understanding with the founders of the Ontario Jockey Club that the race should therefore be established permanently here. Time has proved this to be a wise decision, as under the control of the Ontario Jockey Club, the race has amply fulfilled its purpose of encouraging the breeding of thoroughbreds in the Province of Ontario.

The Earl of Minto, a former governor-general of Canada, on his return to England, stated publicly, "Nothing, in my opinion, has done more good for horse breeding in Canada than the King's Plate run at Toronto." The race has steadily grown in importance and, the royal donation being continued by his late illustrious Majesty King Edward VII., has been run annually without interruption; so that when his Majesty King George V. decided to continue the gift, the King's Plate was already established as the oldest fixture run continuously in North America.

It will be run this year on Friday, May 24. Thirty-two nominations have been made for the race and, while no mention is made in the conditions, owners of entries are permitted for the period of the war to take their horses out of Canada and not suffer disqualification so long as they have been registered with the Ontario Jockey Club.

BELIEVE NEW ORLEANS WANTS RACING

New Orleans, La., May 9.—"The Business Men's Racing Association will take no action in regard to the proposed bill opponents of racing will introduce into the Legislature to kill the sport in Louisiana," John T. Pender said after his re-election to the presidency of the association last Monday. Others re-elected are: I. B. Rennyson, vice-president; A. B. Graves, secretary-treasurer, and R. S. Eddy, Jr., assistant secretary-treasurer.

The election of officers followed naming of nine directors by the stockholders. The new directors named the four officers from their number. Other directors elected are Arturo del Orto, A. B. Letellier, Gus Pitard, Albert Buja and Louis N. Lang.

No other action was taken by the directors. President Pender and I. B. Rennyson said after the meeting:

"Our attitude toward racing is not affected by the proposed bill in the next Legislature and we will not conduct a lobby against it. We don't want racing here if the people of New Orleans don't want it. We would be glad to have a vote of the people as to whether they want racing.

"We believe the people of New Orleans do want racing. Last winter 50,000 persons came here for the races and we estimate that at least 10,000 of them would not have come if we had not had racing. They spend their money here.

"We are doing the same thing. The association gave $53,000 to the support of the Fair last year. We have paid $146,000 on the City Park race track, which will cost $400,000 and $45,000 interest. It will go to the city. We paid into the city treasury $5,000 for license fee and we paid $12,600 in city and state taxes. The United States government got $30,000 in war taxes from the last season's racing. We give to every charity and enterprise that comes along. We have given and given until we are exhausted."

CAREER OF "HONEST JOHN" OSBORNE

Former Crack Jockey Now Eighty-Five Years Old, but Hale, Hearty and Active.

Truly a wonderful man, the veteran still rides regularly at exercise, and it is only five years ago that one saw him riding The Guller over the full course on the morning preceding the Chester Cup, which he won and for which he trained him, while more recently he has been seen striding along, saddle in hand, with far more life and dash than the majority of his younger contemporaries, before putting one of his charges through his toilet for a race. Although born in Derbyshire, most of his life has been spent in Yorkshire, and just as it has been said of Fordham that he knew every blade of grass on Newmarket Heath, so must "Honest John" be acquainted with every twig on Middleham moor. Many of the most famous jockeys of all time have come from the North-country, but there probably never was a superior to John Osborne, who achieved some great performances during the forty-two years of his public career, which commenced when he was but thirteen years old.

HIS ST. LEGER VICTORIES.

In 1856 he scored his first classic victory by the aid of Manganese, which won the One Thousand Guineas for W. H. Brooks, and eighteen years later had his second success on Apology, which also won the Oaks and St. Leger for Mr. Launde, the sporting parson. This daughter of Adventurer was a sterling good mare and her "Leger" was a memorable event, for George Frederick was stuck out on the morning of the race and there was considerable doubt as to whether she would be able to run owing to lameness. However, she did go to the post and started favorite, although she was not liked in the preliminary canter, and, moreover, began slowly, being at one time such a long way behind the leaders that her chance seemed gone. She improved as she warmed to her work and was on fighting terms a half mile from home, and eventually won easily, amid a scene of wild enthusiasm. Still more remarkable was the success in the same handling of Lord St. Vincent's Lord Clifden in 1863, and if that be beyond the limit of most present-day memories, a similar race may be recalled when Kilwarlin, ridden by the Foxhill trainer, Robinson, won thirty years since, after being to all intents and purposes left at the post. This famous horse was one of the best of Newminster's progeny.

Among his early victories were the "Woodcote" and the "Champagne" at Doncaster, two recognized two-year-old tests in those days. A "dickey" leg gave trouble in the following season, but for all that he was only beaten a head by Macaroni for the Derby and, with his conqueror out of the way, started favorite for the St. Leger when, to the consternation of his supporters, he was left standing still at the start and lost so much ground that for the moment he was dismissed from further consideration. Nor did the situation seem more hopeful when, as the Red House was reached, he was still fifty lengths behind the leaders, but from that landmark forward his enormous stride rapidly improved his position and he got up to win a marvelous race by a half length from Lord Falmouth's (then racing in the name of Mr. T. Valentine) Oaks winner, Queen Bertha. It was said to be the only one of his lordship's wonderful string of race horses on which he ever had a bet and that only a sixpence, which he afterwards presented to his trainer's wife, Mrs. John Scott, encircled in diamonds. John Osborne's St. Leger record was indeed remarkable.

AN EPSOM TRIUMPH.

Lord Clifden's fame did not end here, but was perpetuated at the stud, for although he never himself sired a Derby winner, his son, Hampton, which started his racing career by winning a small Plate at 'Appy 'Ampton was the progenitor of Merry Hampton and Ayrshire. Lord Clifden, however, got St. Leger winners in Hawthornden, Wenlock, Jannette and Petrarch, of which the last-named also won a sensational Two Thousand Guineas, while Jannette also won the Oaks, in which, however, she was lucky, perhaps, to reverse the One Thousand Guineas form with Pilgrimage. Other classic winners that sprang from Lord Clifden's loins were the Oaks heroines, Miss Jummy and Busybody, both daughters of Petrarch. Osborne, like Fordham and Tom Cannon, only won the Derby once, and that was when Pretender scored after a finish so desperately close with Pero Gomez that as they flashed past the post Wells exclaimed: "I've just done you, Johnnie," but was countered with the remark: "No, I'm not beaten, it may be a dead heat." As it happened both were wrong, for Judge Clark decided that Pretender had won by a short head.

"Pero," however, was the better horse and would have won but for interference at a critical juncture and this was proved later when Sir Joseph Hawley's game horse, not only reversed the placings in the St. Leger, but repeated the dose two days later in the Doncaster Stakes. It has been stated that the son of Adventurer had by that time become a roarer and I should be chary of challenging the statement, though it came as news and it strikes me as possible that he may have been confounded with Bothwell in the same ownership, who was either a "musician" at the time or became so after he had won the Two Thousand Guineas two years later.

ASCOT SUCCESSES OF OSBORNE.

John Osborne holds a splendid record in connection with the Two Thousand, which he won first on Vedette in 1857, under the famous Aske spots of Lord Zetland, which was near the end of his career, and an old horse when he got Galopin, winner of the Derby, and sire of St. Simon, of immortal fame, both as race horse and stallion. Bothwell's success was supplemented by those of Pretender, Prince Charlie, Camballo and Ayrshire, and he would have had another winning mount on Scot Free had he not been claimed for Beauchamp. Ascot was a lucky battle ground for the Ashgill jockey, where many and important victories rewarded his efforts for Sir Robert Jardine (or J. Johnstone, which was synonymous), in the silver-braided blue jacket, with which he was for so many years associated, together with Thomas Dawson and Fred Bates.

It was in the colors of R. C. Vyner, however, that he rode possibly the best finish of his career, when Minting fought out a great battle with Ormonde, both four-year-olds, for the Hardwicke Stakes. A stronger finisher than he never sat in a saddle and, if, perhaps, not so elegant in style as some of his rivals, none could improve on him. Like George Fordham, he rode with an exceptionally short iron, something approaching the American habit, without the ugly crouch and I do not fear contradiction in describing both as among the greatest horsemen of all times. "Eighty-five, not out," is a fine innings and there is good hope that "Honest John" will make his century, so wonderful is his health, constitution and vitality.—"Vigilant" in London Sportsman.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

J. G., Harvey, Ill. When it came to the running, there was no R. Carlisle entry in the first race at Pimlico May 6, and the parlay was simply a wager on Omar Khayyam.

H. P. S., El Paso, Tex. A show parlay on Yorkville, Petrovna and Phocion April 29, won on the first two and was void on Phocion, because no show tickets were sold on his race.

A. H. P. E., St. Louis, Mo. Apparently Omar Khayyam's fastest training gallop prior to the Kentucky Derby of 1917, was his mile and a quarter in 2:07⅘ at Lexington, Sunday, May 6. As to the 2:04⅘, that was his time in the Derby itself.

F. A., New Orleans, La. A wager on one horse, with a direction that its winnings, or a part of them, are to be wagered on another horse, is not a parlay. A parlay is a continuous accumulating wager on two or more horses, in which the sum wagered and its gains apply in succession until all the horses named have won, or one has lost.

WAY TO SECURE PROPER WAR HORSE

Cincinnati, O., May 9.—Vacillations in the fighting line in Flanders and France, necessitating the rapid changing of artillery and the moving of supplies, has emphasized the highly important part the horse is playing in modern warfare and called attention to the vitally essential need of well-bred stock in the military establishment. The idea that the motor truck had supplanted the horse has been proved erroneous, and the horse has not only held his own for the mounted service, but also for supply purposes. The horse has been used on the battle field with signal success and the motor truck, excepting for the rapid movement of infantry to points of attack, has been used for traction purposes in the rear of the line.

The rapid changes in the western line, which put horses to the supreme test for endurance and stamina, has demonstrated without tae shadow of a doubt the value of thoroughbred blood in the veins of war horses. In the time of stress, the horse, as well as man, is put to the crucial test. Then it is that the spirit of the thoroughbred struggles ever on, while the scrub and nag submit quickly to fatigue and superlative effort.

Lacking the spirit of a thoroughbred, an animal fails in the hour when most depends upon him. For the possession of that vitalizing blood the buyers of European governments long before the present war paid fortunes in the purchase of winners of great races on continental tracks and the great courses of England. They knew that blood and the spirit of winning engendered in horses by participation in racing was the factor essentially necessary for the war horse.

Although the United States government did not invest in thoroughbred sires on an extensive scale before the war, the general attention which has been paid to the rehabilitation of our war establishment has called attention to the necessity of improving the breed of the American horse directly by the government and also through the sport of racing. Opposition to this form of sport by legislatures came near ruining the breeding industry in the United States, for no man will breed high-class stock if he has neither the opportunity to show the quality of his product nor a market in which his horses can be disposed of at an advantage.

WOULD BE BENEFIT TO ALL.

Anything the federal government might do to improve the breed would react to the benefit of every horse owner and would assure the government in return the basis of a stock suited for war purposes and ample to meet any emergency. Colonel Henry J. Reilly, who went abroad last winter for a Chicago newspaper to study conditions, drew these conclusions regarding the use of the horse for military purposes: "In general, it may be said that an army must still have animals for all its cavalry, the usefulness of which is far from disappearing; it must have horses for all its light field artillery, half its heavy field artillery, and all its regimental and divisional supply lines."

The battle which has been raging with unprecedented fury since last month is taking its toll, not only in men, but also in horses. Thousands of them have met their death. It is estimated that there are 4,500,000 horses in use by all the armies and that the losses, not including the present battle for which statistics will not be available for many months, have averaged 47,000 a month.

About 1,500,000 horses in the allies' armies were imported from the United States. These figures indicate to horsemen that thousands of horses with thoroughbred quality have been killed and maimed, and that the governments of all the belligerents are face to face with a problem of replacing them with animals of high standard that will cause them much trouble and worry when the war is over.

This situation, which affects the United States as badly as it does any continental government, calls for the encouragement of the breeding industry and for the revocation of laws that have hampered its free development. Many members of state legislatures that voted blindly against racing are beginning to see how shortsighted was their policy, and that they jeopardized an industry that was "doing its bit" to supply a commodity of great importance for the successful prosecution of any war. Interest in racing and the consequent encouragement which it will give to breed high-class horses, on which rests the basis of pure-bred light stock, is one factor that will help the country out of the dilemma.

ENTRIES IN THE JUVENILE STAKES

Among the stake races for two-year-olds at Churchill Downs the Juvenile Stakes does not net its winners as much money as the Bashford Manor Stakes or the Debutante Stakes, but for all that any owner is more than willing to win the race. Pimlico Entries and Past Performances for Friday, May 10.

WEATHER CLEAR. TRACK FAST.

The figures under the heading "Rec." in the entries below show the best time of each horse at the distance since January 1, 1916, no matter where it finished. In cases where record was made on other than a fast or good track, abbreviations show track conditions.

All the old time records, from 1911 to 1915, inclusive, have been thrown out as too aged to be valuable as applied to 1918 racing.
